BOYS AND GIRLS BRIGADE RECEIVES $9,000 DONATION FROM JOHNSON INSURANCE SERVICES

Wisconsin, December 7, 2011 – John Dery, Executive Director of the Boys and Girls Brigade Association in Neenah, Wisconsin announced today that Johnson Insurance Services donated $9,000 to the association.

“The Boys' & Girls' Brigade is very grateful for this generous contribution. The Brigade has served thousands of children for well over 100 years,” said Dery. “It is through the recognition and wonderful support like this from Johnson Insurance Services that makes Brigade possible for these kids.”

The Chubb Group of Insurance Companies has sponsored The Chubb Charity Challenge since 1990. Chubb’s annual golf tournament brings together insurance agents, brokers and customers throughout the United States and Canada each year to raise money for charity.

“Local charities continue to be in great need of support,” said Walter Cain, Vice President, and Chubb Milwaukee Branch Manager. “We’re especially proud to work with Johnson Insurance to support the Boys and Girls Brigade through the 2011 Chubb Charity Challenge event.”

Since its creation in 2000, this series of golf tournaments has raised nearly $10 million for charity. This year, the Johnson Insurance golf team won $9,000 at the outing, which they chose to donate to the Boys and Girls Brigade during a check presentation at their office this morning at 11 a.m.

“Each year, we select a different charity,” said Roger Abbott, Commercial Sales Executive for Johnson Insurance Services. “Organizations like the Boys and Girls Brigade and the Chubb Group make communities a better place. We’re proud to support them.”
