

Pat Weber

by Kathy Clusman

When I think of Pat Weber I get a calm, gentle feeling that comes over me. Pat is a very soft spoken, kind hearted person that always speaks highly of others. Pat Weber came into my world as a Camp Onaway leader about twelve years ago. I was new to the whole Camp Onaway experience and was there because my daughter was there. Without being assigned to do so, Pat took me under her wings and showed me how to be a proper role model and mentor to the camp full of girls. It didn't take long to figure out why she was so successful as a leader. Her motherly ways of guiding the girls to make the right choices was evident, and everyone was always rewarded with kind words and her gentle smile when doing the right thing.

I truly believe it is the gentle ways and camaraderie of leaders like Pat Weber that has made our camp so unique. We have girls come from all over the United States and they are all welcomed with open arms and loving hearts. It is with this same spirit that our daughter and I have shared a wonderful week of camp with up to twelve nieces and their friends for eight years now. I would like to thank Pat for her dedication to our youth and our future!
